ABOUT THE SPEAKER:

Ellen Stein, Ph.D., is a former Adjunct Clinical Professor at Alliant International University in San Diego. Over the course of 12 years, Dr. Stein taught the required Advanced Law/Ethics courses provided to graduate students completing their internship and academic training. She also teaches the formerly required BOP (and currently required BBS) credentialing CEU workshops in Law/Ethics and Domestic Violence for schools and agencies across California. Dr. Stein specializes in forensic assessment and expert witness testimony in cases involving family violence, sexual abuse, trauma, personality disorders, and issues of sexuality and gender identity. Dr. Stein is also the Vice Chair of the Ethics Committee of the California Psychological Association, and she has published extensively on legal and ethical issues. Her workshops are known for her outstanding interweaving of valuable training with an entertaining and engaging style.
