Responding to Ethical, Licensing and Malpractice Complaints

In this workshop you will also find the answers to these questions that every clinician needs to know:

- What exactly is "malpractice"?
- Have the laws and regulations changed since I was licensed?
- What exactly is the Tarasoff Warning?
- How do I comply with HIPAA's new security standards?
- What constitutes "boundary violations", and what are the risks?
- How should my policies change because of The Patriot Act?
- How do I deal with the death of my patient?
- And how does a "Professional Will" help prepare for my own?

ABOUT THE SPEAKER:

Ellen G. Stein, Ph.D., is a forensic and clinical psychologist in practice in San Diego, CA. Dr. Stein is a former Adjunct Professor of Law and Ethics with Alliant International University, as well as the University of San Diego, National University, and United States International University. She specializes in forensic consultation, assessment, and expert witness testimony in civil, criminal, and military courts martial matters. Previously serving as the Vice Chair of the California Psychological Association's Ethics Committee for three years, Dr. Stein provided consultation on law, ethics, and clinical issues in the practice of psychology, and she is a court-appointed expert for the Superior Court of California, San Diego.

In addition, Dr. Stein was recently appointed to the California Board of Psychology's Enforcement Program, as an Expert Reviewer, for matters involving complaints against a psychologist. She has published extensively on legal and ethical issues in the practice of psychology, and her workshops are known for her outstanding interweaving of valuable training with an entertaining and engaging style.
